The second staff contains the melody for the second line: "joy of sal - va - tion." followed by a repeat sign with two endings. The first ending leads back to the beginning of the second line, and the second ending concludes the phrase.

1. Blessed is he whose fault is taken away,
whose sin is covered.
Blessed the man to whom the LORD imputes not guilt,
in whose spirit there is no guile.
2. Then I acknowledged my sin to you,
my guilt I covered not.
I said, "I confess my faults to the LORD,"
and you took away the guilt of my sin.
3. Be glad in the LORD and rejoice, you just;
exult, all you upright of heart.
