Performance Notes

This is a song of adoration based on the familiar Good Friday antiphon with verses that are derived from the Gospel of John. The mood of the song is one of simple reverence before the mystery of our salvation. The key to creating this mood is to perform the song with simplicity.

The Verses may also be performed by a soloist. They should be sung with much feeling and need not be done in strict timing. The ritardando at the end of each Verse is very important for leading into the Refrain.
